REALIZATION AND FUTURITY.

Dave Gideon put his starting machine on the Holmdel farm training track, with a keen eye on the $40,000 Futurity of 1896. He owns Eakins, the Iroquois—Carlotta colt, which he bought as a yearling for Gideon & Daly in 1894 for $6,500, and for Gideon at the partnership closing for $12,500. Captain Absolute, of The Horseman, writing about the trials of Eakins last fall, offers literary testimony to the effect that the colt is far and away the best that the watch and trial test has ever uncovered. He says:

The Carlotta colt had several trials in October at Morris Park one cold blustering day, when he did his three furlongs in :35 $\frac{1}{4}$, and finished out his half mile in 50 seconds. Henry Griffin rode the colt, and before he left for California gave me an account of it.

"I thought I was on a good one when I rode Requitall," said he, "but if the Carlotta colt isn't a better one next year I'll eat him. Oh, how I'd like to ride him for the Futurity."

"But isn't that a fast bit of ground at Morris Park?" I asked.

"It is, of course, but outside the question of time it was a great bit of racing. Why, he handled Waltzer. You know what a flyer Waltzer is. He was good that day, but the colt was better."

"But the weights?"

"He had within two pounds of Waltzer. I know I weighed myself after it, and I had 124 pounds. A yearling that can do Waltzer at anything like evens, must be a hummer. How many old horses could do it at that distance?"

"That's true, but a yearling is generally as fast as he ever is afterwards as an old horse."

"For a quarter or three furlongs, yes, but this was a full half mile."

"Don't you think you have seen 2-year-olds which could have won stakes for 3-year-olds in the autumn? Ben Brush could, I think, have won every 3-year-old race last autumn at Morris Park."

"Perhaps he could with difference in weight, but this colt handled Waltzer, one of the fastest old horses in training, at evens. I don't think he could have beaten Butterflies, no horse could do that for a burst of speed, but this colt is the fastest, bar Butterflies, I ever tried."

Griffin's estimate of the Carlotta colt may not be extravagant, but his brother, Hamilton II, was tried almost as high as a yearling and failed utterly last year. Matt Byrnes, his trainer, told me he was the greatest disappointment of his entire career as a trainer.

The Keene Stable's half brother to Tenny, by Candemas—Belle of Maywood, will race as St. Cloud. He'll go in the Futurity, unless accident interferes. His stable rates St. Cloud as having a chance.

Jimmie Rowe, of the expensive Brookdale outfit, has some candidates too. The chief is Elkins, named after the West Virginia politician, who was a friend of the closest kind to Col. W. P. Thompson, who has gone to his own place. Elkins, by Uncas—Laetitia.

The Morris Brothers have a Futurity candidate too and think well of him. He is known as The Friar and is royally bred, by the English horse, Friar's Balsam, out of Lizzie Baker.

August Belmont, high-class and always in line, pins his Futurity hopes on Don d'Oro, a colt by Rayon d'Or—Belladonna; Taranto, by St. Blaise—Tarantella; Octagon, by Rayon d'Or—Ortega and Fidenia, a real good filly by Rayon d'Or—Fides.

W. J. Arkell has a sweet colt, also a Futurity candidate, by Strathmore—Beatitude, and Dave Pulsifer considers that he has a son of Tenny likely to be in the hunt. This sums up Eastern expectations. There are a lot of Western Futurity candidates. What of them? DAILY RACING FORM will consider the Westerners later.

One of the richest of American three year old stakes is the Realization at 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ miles, run in midsummer, July 11, at Sheepshead Bay. Its

Of course the season of 1896 will furnish perplexities as bearing on the Realization. But to do the form of the race stands as above.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Pat Dunne's Derby colt Captive is reported to have pulled up lame in recent work at Memphis. Joe Burke, as conservative and safe a man as there is in racing, is to be chief of stewards at St. Louis this year.

It is sure that the Queen City Jockey Club track at Newport is to start April 11. Its programme and purposes are high of class.

Canadian stories, without the proper backing, have Saragossa on the Queer Street of training. He was the live Brooklyn Handicap outsider.

W. D. Frazier declares to the Ohio-Kentucky division of the turf that Harbinger is the Oakley Derby outsider that has the dark chance.

It turns out that Jockey Heinrich, who did not get his share of the "Little Pete" conspiracy spoils, was the original informer against the Chinaman and Williams, Chorn, Chevalier & Co. at San Francisco.

Riley Grannan, commenting on the ludicrous report that he won fifty, seventy-five, or one hundred thousand dollars or so on Patterson's Strathmore—Beatrice filly Suisun, says that his actual winnings on the race were $136.

The foreign press has Billy Myer "tabbed" wrong. The ex-warrior is now a business man. He's the head and front of the supply department of the Indiana tracks, and showing the quality that made him a fighter of the first-class in a business way.

Ingleside has introduced another racing innovation that is modern and proper in the appointment of a paddock steward who overlooks the doings of the racing factors which come under his eye. So far, however, the ring steward, most needed of all, has not been created.

DAILY RACING FORM's men were happy in their form idea about Wednesday's racing. The San Francisco wizard picked the last five winners at Ingleside; the New Orleans sage chose two winners and was all about those that did win. The Little Rock prophet, after being scratched out of one race, called the turn on three of the other four and placed the horses in the fourth two-one.

Barney Schreiber's Idea.

Barney Schreiber, perhaps the most popular of western owners and bookmakers, says of DAILY RACING FORM. "If I can find a fault with the paper it is that, it gives too much information. No sport ever had so high class and comprehensive a daily authority. It is far deeper than any form book."

WOODLANDS STUD

15 MILES FROM ST LOUIS ON THE WABASH
BARNEY SCHREIBER'S MODEL FARM.

THE CHOICEST OF AUSTRALIAN BLOOD.

FOUL SHOT BY MUSKET -SLANDER.

MUSKET is the sire of Carbine, Trenton, Nordenfeld, Currassier, Brigadier, Maxim, Martini-Henry, etc. Slander, was the winner of seventy-five races at all distances, carrying as high as 145 pounds, by Camden, out of Annie Laurie (a famous race mare and producer). Capapie, the sire of the latter, was the grandsire of Yattendon. Foulshot himself was a great race horse. He won the Northern Derby in New Zealand in the fastest time it has ever been run in, and the same afternoon won at two miles from twenty-six starters. He has been a phenomenal success as a sire. Last year he had nineteen representatives on the turf, twelve of which were winners, and all the others inside the money. Foul Shot will come east in May and take his place at Woodlands, after serving a few of the most select California mares, including Janet N, the dam of Crescendo, Bellicoso and Dolce.
